

SIXTH FORM YOGA

We are delighted to announce the return of sixth form yoga, run by Mrs Arrow. The session takes place in the Drama hall every Thursday at 3.20pm. Due to social distancing restrictions, please email Mrs Arrow if you would like to reserve a space. If you own one, please bring your own mat, but a sanitised spare will be provided if you don't. Come along and give it a try, it's beneficial for both body and mind.

LUNCHTIME TED TALKS

Next week you have the opportunity to watch a TED talk by Sir Ken Robinson entitled "Do Schools Kill Creativity?" – An interesting topic without a doubt, so please head over to the Conference Centre on Thursday 8th October at 1pm to check it out.

MASK CLARIFICATION

Some people were a little unsure of the circumstances where a mask was required to be worn around the sixth form building. For clarification, please ensure you are wearing a mask at all times when you are in the corridors. This includes lining up for lessons, leaving registration and even moving around the building during lesson time.

C-CARD DROP IN SERVICE

Every Wednesday lunchtime from 12:50pm until 1:30pm, Kayleigh, a youth worker from Porch Project will be in Mr Alexander's office offering the C-Card service. This is a confidential service in which you can have access to free contraception or someone to talk to if you need. There are also free feminine and personal hygiene items available – a selection of which are available from Mrs King or Miss Byham upon request at any time.

HOUSE COMPETITIONS

Miss Hilson has announced the next of the House competitions this week and we are hopeful that some sixth form students will use their artistic abilities to design a poster about a famous scientist. All entries should be sent to Mrs Peacock (speacock@tgschool.net) by Monday 19th October. Details of the competition can be found here.

HEAD BOY AND GIRL UPDATE

"This week we premiered our virtual assembly, in which we were able to properly introduce ourselves to lower school and the new year 12's, despite Covid-19 restrictions. We thank everyone for their lovely feedback and can't wait to hold our first Covid secure school parliament meeting next week! The academic and community committees have also been busy holding their initial meetings and completing the academic guide to sixth form."

ACADEMIC REVIEW DAY BOOKING

A reminder that it is Academic Review Day next Thursday 8th October. Please can you ensure you have an appointment to meet with your tutor. Appointments can be booked online using this link.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

This week's Net Sixth Form resources cover pathways programmes for Year 12, medical work experience, help if you are feeling overwhelmed and information on the blended tutorial scheme.

This week's University Taster Days bulletin contains a multitude of links to help you with university related decisions including:

- Business School Virtual Taster Sessions
- Opening The Door To A Career In Financial Markets
- Student Life at Falmouth

UCAS – Virtual Exhibitions

UCAS are hosting live, virtual exhibitions on a huge variety of university subjects with advice on research options, writing personal statements and student finance. Read More

Goldman Sachs Engineering Degree Apprenticeship

Get a head start on a career in Goldman Sachs engineering while studying for a degree in Computer Science. This four year programme runs in association with Queen Mary University of London. Read More

University Open Days

For help on how to search for virtual open days and procedures please see the UCAS website Click Here

University Taster Lectures

Geography/Sociology - Geography In A Digital Age: Reflections On The Smart Technology Revolution - Click Here

I Wonder Wednesday

'I Wonder Wednesdays' is a series of online taster sessions designed to help you explore the subjects that interest you and discover what it would be like to study them at university. You'll meet one of our lecturers and have the chance to ask any questions about the subject and about the University of Suffolk. They're also a great way to demonstrate interest in your subject when writing your personal statement.

Each taster runs on a Wednesday afternoon and will last for around one hour. You can book to attend as many as you like and all you need to take part is access to a computer! Click Here

CAREERS NEWS

Into the Workplace: Free Online Work Experience

Inspire! - a London-based education business partnership has produced this free online work experience 'experience' which gives students of all ages an opportunity to explore different places of work. Take a look! Read More

What does an Agronomist Do?

Have you heard of an Agronomist? Are you interested in biology and ecology? Check out this job profile on the national careers service website. Read More

Investment 20/20

Find out about opportunities available in the financial sector for school leavers here.

