

HAPPY EASTER

As another term draws to a close, the Sixth Form Team would like to wish all our students and their families a happy and relaxing Easter break. We know that Year 13 students will be using this opportunity to revise in preparation for their upcoming exams, but it is equally important for them to RELAX.

Exam revision can be overwhelming, but it has been proven time and time again that revising is more effective when properly balanced with downtime – whatever that means for you. So, in between revision sessions, make sure you get out and enjoy the sunshine (fingers crossed we have some), see friends and family and enjoy those lovely hot crossed buns and chocolate eggs!

HEAD STUDENTS APPOINTED

After a full-on day of first and second round interviews yesterday, the Sixth Form Team along with Mrs Yapp are delighted to announce that there will be not the usual two Head Students this year, but a whopping six of them!

The standard was so high that it was impossible to choose between them. A massive congratulations goes to Alanah Reeve, Alana Hutchinson, Ellen Dreau, Oliver Race, Megan Turner and Alexander Mayles – our super six!

It must also be said, that those who didn't make it through missed out by just a whisker, as we really did have an amazing group of applicants to choose from. Thank you and well done to all who applied and were shortlisted. You should feel very proud of yourselves.

THE ILLUSTRATOR – ISSUE 10

A new cohort has taken over production of our student magazine The Illustrator. Their first edition – an Easter special is out now and you can read it here.

TED TV OF THE WEEK

The future will be shaped by optimists with Kevin Kelly

"Every great and difficult thing has required a strong sense of optimism," says editor and author Kevin Kelly, who believes that we have a moral obligation to be optimistic. Tracing humanity's progress throughout history, he's observed that a positive outlook helps us solve problems and empowers us to forge a path forward. In this illuminating talk, he shares three reasons for optimism during challenging times, explaining how it can help us become better ancestors and create the world we want to see for ourselves and future generations.

MOOCS – Massive Open Online Courses

MOOCS are courses delivered online and accessible to all for free. They typically comprise pre-recorded video lessons, readings, assessments, and discussion forums. They offer a massive variety of content and can give young people an opportunity to explore some content from the career they aspire to.

Most MOOCS are made by universities. Some of the first and most active MOOC makers are Stanford, MIT, and Harvard, others are made by companies, such as Microsoft or Google etc. Some MOOCs can be started at any time and others start at regular intervals.

4 main websites that offer access to these free courses can be found here :

- Coursera
- FutureLearn
- OpenLearn
- Edx

Students can search for courses that interest them and these may be related to a future career aspiration such as medicine or law. These can be really useful to overcome the issues of not being able to access work experience in a chosen profession as they show interest and also initiative. They can be useful to include in personal statements, university interviews as well as giving young people a taste of the content to the university degree or career path they are interested in following.
