

Useful Websites for Careers

www.icanbea.org.uk

Are you a young person in Suffolk or Norfolk? Are you looking for a way to see the latest local opportunities for work, careers and training?

icanbea... is a social media styled careers website, designed to help you choose your future career from the massive spectrum of opportunities we have in Norfolk, Suffolk and beyond.

We've got loads of information about the industries and sectors across the region, tons of videos and over 100 organisation profiles for you to look at right now – so why not sign-up for free?

www.thesource.me.uk/jobsandcareers/

The Source is managed by the Engagement Hub within Children and Young People's Services at Suffolk County Council. We are part of a much bigger service that works to support children, young people and families. The Source website is a key part of that support and it's accessible to everyone.

www.icould.com/

Suitable for younger students - In under five minutes, discover: your strengths and what makes you tick, which celebrities share your personality type.

There are 16 possible results, each connected to an animal. Which animal are you?

www.plotr.co.uk

Suitable for older students - Careers advice that's useful, inspiring and tailored to YOU. Play the free careers advice Game, explore detailed career profile hubs - then take next steps.

www.ucas.com

A useful website to research higher education information such as: when and how to apply, making an application, finances, tariffs, personal statement information, entry requirements and much more.

www.getingofar.gov.uk/apprenticeships

Everything you need to know about apprenticeships.